Course Description:
Most dental practices are sitting on their greatest opportunity for growth... and it's already inside their hygiene department. In today's evolving dental landscape, providers are looking for ways to improve patient care, strengthen team alignment, and increase profitability without adding more stress to the schedule. This course reveals how to do exactly that. Tiffany Wuebben, RDH shares proven, real-world systems to transform the hygiene department into a powerful driver of patient health, practice growth, and team satisfaction.
